

I think that the no call list is great. Why should I have to pay for calls that I don't make or want. This should also include all cell phones.